Dear Supervisors:

APPROVAL OF AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND LOS ANGELES COUNTY CODE
TITLE 8 - CONSUMER PROTECTION AND BUSINESS REGULATIONS AND TITLE 20 - UTILITIES
(ALL DISTRICTS) (3 VOTES)

SUBJECT:

Approval to adopt an ordinance to amend Los Angeles County Code Title 8 - Consumer Protection and Business Regulations and Title 20 - Utilities.

IT IS RECOMMENDED THAT FOLLOWING THE PUBLIC HEARING YOUR BOARD:

Adopt the attached ordinance (Exhibit A) amending Los Angeles County Code (LACC) Title 8 – Consumer Protection and Business Regulations, and LACC Title 20 – Utilities to implement new and revised public health fees and modify business category definitions.

PURPOSE/JUSTIFICATION OF RECOMMENDED ACTION

Approval of the recommended action will effectively adjust existing public health license, permit, and service fees, and implement new fees to allow the Department of Public Health (DPH), Environmental Health (EH) Division to recover its costs for services rendered in Fiscal Year (FY) 2011-12. The last fee increase adopted by the Board was for FY 2007-08. At that time, the Board directed DPH to study the methodology for setting the public health fees. That study was completed in 2010, and the proposed fee changes are based on a new methodology designed to determine the true costs of services provided by the Department and to align the fee structure accordingly.

Additionally, approval of the recommended action will amend LACC Titles 8 and 20 with the updated fees as well as make technical and conforming changes to codify public health license, permit, and service fees, and applicable business category definitions consistent with the definitions found in State laws and regulations.

Implementation of Strategic Plan Goals

The recommended actions support Goal 1, Operational Effectiveness; Goal 4, Health and Mental Health; and Goal 5, Public Safety, of the County's Strategic Plan.

FISCAL IMPACT/FINANCING

Historically, the EH Division proposed, and your Board approved, annual fee adjustments based upon changes to the EH Division's total operating costs. These costs were spread over the all health permit and license fee categories, without regard to whether the actual or reasonable costs of inspection for a particular category actually had increased. Although this methodology was legally acceptable, it lacked precision and resulted in what the EH Division believed were some inequitable fee assessments.

Comparing the new methodology to this prior methodology, the EH Division identified that many of the current fees do not adequately reflect the reasonable or actual costs of services. For example, in the area of restaurant inspections, current fees are solely based on the number of seats found in a food establishment, yet actual inspection frequency and intensity are highly related to the types of food (i.e. prepackaged vs. prepared, raw foods) served in the establishment. The new methodology addresses this issue by factoring-in the true cost of the inspection considering the food safety risk posed by the establishment as opposed to the size of the establishment. Determining fees in this manner ensures that each individual fee is aligned with the true cost of the service provided.

An additional outcome of the fee study was the identification of 40 services currently provided to responsible parties without a fee associated with those services. Accordingly, new fee categories have been established for these services in the proposed ordinance.

As mentioned above, the last fee increase adopted by your Board was for FY 2007-08. During FYs 2007-08, 2008-09, and 2009-10, annual fee/revenue collections remained constant at approximately $69 million. However, because of staffing vacancies, revenues from the fees were not fully used and, therefore, remained as a balance in the Environmental Health Trust Fund. The EH Division's expenditures were only $66.7 million in FY 2007-08. As a result, DPH increased hiring in the EH Division to meet program needs, and also experienced normal salary growth (i.e., step increases and Board-approved salary and benefit increases subsequent to 2007), as well as operating cost increases (e.g., fuel costs). Expenditures increased by $5.4 million in FY 2008-09, $5.6 million in FY 2009-10, $1.8 million in FY 2010-11, and are projected to increase $2.1 million in FY 2011-12. DPH projects that the EH Trust Fund balance will be depleted by the close of FY 2010-11. The existence of the previous balance in the Trust Fund was the basis for not seeking a fee increase since FY 2007-08.

The EH Division has also taken steps to improve program efficiencies, including consolidating food and housing bureaus and reducing local district offices from 21 to 16; reducing the use of paid overtime; establishing workload estimates to determine actual costs and appropriate fees; and reducing duplication of efforts within multiple EH programs.

Approval of the recommended actions would increase the projected revenue to $82.2 million for FY 2011-12. If the recommended ordinance is not adopted by your Board, DPH will face an operating deficit of $12.2 million for FY 2011-12. Without sufficient funding, EH will be forced to freeze positions and curtail services.

FACTS AND PROVISIONAL/LEGAL REQUIREMENTS

Factual Background

The EH of DPH is a regulatory agency that performs mandated services including, but not limited to, inspections and investigations related to food, housing, drinking water, water pollution, solid waste, and vector management. State and local health and safety codes provide EH authority to carry out regulatory activities to ensure that the public enjoys a safe and healthy environment. These regulatory activities are principally offset by the collection of fees for licenses/permits and other services. State law permits EH to collect fees to offset the "reasonable expenses" that arise from its general enforcement activities and, in the area of retail food activities, for the "actual expenses" incurred in enforcing the California Retail Food Code.

On July 24, 2007, following a public hearing, your Board approved fee increases for the EH Division's regulatory and inspection activities and an ordinance amendment to LACC, Title 8 and Title 20, for FY 2007-08. At that time, the Board requested that, prior to any future increases, the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) report back to your Board on whether the EH Division was operating cost effectively and whether yearly increases were disproportionately harmful to small locally owned restaurants.

On July 22, 2008, the CEO reported to your Board that an evaluation of EH operations had determined that a fee increase was not necessary for FY 2008-09 and that DPH would return to your Board for approval 60 days prior to the next proposed fee increase. In addition, the CEO reported that a rate analysis would be conducted to determine the appropriateness of any proposed fee increases.

In April 2010, DPH utilized the Auditor Controller's Master Agreement process to contract with MGT of America, Inc. (MGT) to develop a methodology to determine the actual cost of services provided by EH. The resulting methodology allows DPH to determine fees consistent with actual costs. The cost for each service provided by EH is individually determined based on a calculation of the associated workload, e.g., "time required for a high-risk restaurant inspection," multiplied by "annual frequency of inspection," multiplied by "number of high-risk restaurants in the County".

On April 19, 2011, DPH first proposed this ordinance, incorporating the new fee-setting methodology. At that time, your Board continued the item to May 10, 2011, so that DPH and the EH Division staff could meet with impacted parties regarding the proposed changes in annual permit fees. Upon returning to the Board on May 10, 2011, Supervisor Knabe moved, with amendments by Supervisors Yaroslavsky and Antonovich, to continue the public hearing to July 12, 2011, in order for DPH to provide further outreach to affected parties. This motion also instructed DPH to provide recommendations for improving the quality of service to permit holders. An update on this latter instruction regarding service quality is being provided to your Board in a separate communication.

DPH held a total of 16 meetings with associations representing the impacted parties between April 26 and June 16, 2011. Meeting participants included the California Restaurant Association, Los Angeles Area Chamber of Commerce, Central City Association of Los Angeles, Valley Industry and Commerce Association, California Apartment Association of Greater Los Angeles, California Apartment Association-Los Angeles Chapter, Southern California Mobile Food Vendors, La Asociacion de Loncheros, Food Industry Business Roundtable, Motion Picture and Television Mobile Catering Organization, members of the food vending machine industry, Certified Farmers' Market managers and vendors, and the Single Room Occupancy (SRO) Housing Corporation.

In addition, public meetings were held on May 3, May 4, May 31, June 13, June 14, and July 7, 2011. Prior notice of the meetings was provided via e-mail, web posting, and direct mail (see Exhibit B). Notice of the June and July meetings was sent to 130,000 existing and 3,000 proposed new fee payers. For those unable to attend the meetings, EH established an e-mail address and dedicated phone line to receive public comments.

EH received comments about the proposed changes at the industry and public meetings, as well as via e-mail. DPH has provided to your offices a response to these comments under a separate communication. As a result of the industry and public input received, the following modifications were made to the previous fee proposal.

1. The component of food facility permit fees related to illegal food vending enforcement has been reduced from 9.9% to 7%. This reduction was made to reduce the burden on permitted food facility operators. We are exploring alternative funding sources, as well as program efficiencies to minimize the impact of this reduction on enforcement efforts.
2. The workload estimates for "temporary food booth inspection," including those conducted at Certified Farmers' Markets have been revised downward. The revisions were based on a decrease in estimated travel and inspection times. This resulted in a corresponding reduction in the proposed fees.
3. The fee for food vending machines has been frozen at $62, rather than the previously proposed fee of $275. This change was made in consultation with the vending machine industry to allow for development, during the next Fiscal Year, of a more effective approach to regulating this industry.
4. The workload estimates for "swimming pool inspections" have been revised. The first revision was the reduction of travel time for multiple pools at the same location. In addition, swimming pools were classified into 3-tiers of "low," "moderate" and "high risk." These revisions resulted in a decrease in fees for approximately 10,000 multi-family residential pool sites. However, an increase in fees will result for approximately 1,300 health clubs, hotels, schools and theme parks, which operate pools classified as "moderate" and "high risk."
5. The definition of the "fee exempt charitable activity" has been expanded to include "Single Room Occupancies" that provide permanent housing with free supportive services for the homeless.

DPH also made several other revisions in the workload estimates. These revisions resulted in fee reductions in plan check services for retail food facilities, and inspections of garment manufacturers, wiping rag establishments, commercial laundries, and solid waste facilities which handle construction and demolition debris. In addition, the revisions resulted in fee increases in plan check services for swimming pools undergoing "moderate" or "major renovations" and recycled water projects.

DPH also proposes a change in the method used in determining charitable exemption status. This change would limit the granting of fee exemptions to businesses that comply with the federal tax code for charitable exemption and operate exclusively to provide free meals, free housing, permanent housing with free supportive services for the homeless, and free animal therapy services.

DPH is proposing to add a service which will allow businesses to request an expedited review of construction plans. This service will be offered at a rate of 1.5 times the normal plan review cost, and will be completed by staff working overtime to prevent disruption of normal plan review activities.

DPH also is updating definitions for existing services to reflect and/or be consistent with the proposed new fee structures. Definitions are being added for existing services that are currently mandated under California law but are not currently charged a fee.

Overall, the current fee structure will be revised to:

- Increase fees charged for 119 service categories which affect 107,300 entities;
- Decrease fees charged for 52 service categories which affect 59,375 entities;
and
- Establish 40 new fee service categories affecting 9,500 entities that currently are not assessed any fee.

DPH will continue discussions with the regulated industries during the coming year to address other identified issues related to public health fees, policies, and service quality. These include an incentive program that would reduce inspection frequencies, and associated fees, based on good compliance history. A list of meetings scheduled for this purpose is attached as Exhibit D.

Legal and Statutory Background

As previously stated, State law permits EH to collect fees to offset the "reasonable expenses" that arise from its general enforcement activities and, in the area of retail food activities, for the "actual expenses" incurred in enforcing the California Retail Food Code. In public meetings, several associations and fee payers raised the legality of the fees being assessed and questioned whether some fees are unlawful taxes under Proposition 26.

Because of the significance of these questions, DPH consulted with County Counsel to determine whether its fees are consistent with State law and do not constitute an unlawful tax. DPH and County Counsel believe that the proposed fees do not constitute taxes. In this regard, it is important to note that a fee is something imposed solely for the purpose of covering reasonable regulatory costs, as opposed to a tax, which is imposed as a means of raising revenue. California law permits a governmental entity to charge a fee so long as it does not exceed the reasonable or actual cost of providing services necessary to regulate the activity for which the fee is charged.

Further, "reasonable costs" or "actual costs" include all those costs which are incident to the issuance of a license or permit, investigation, inspection, and administration, or with the maintenance of a system of supervision and enforcement. Therefore, reasonable expenses by definition include more than the actual cost of the service provided to an individual fee payer.

As for issues raised under Proposition 26, that proposition provides that any fees enacted by local government are taxes unless the fee qualifies for any one of seven exceptions contained in the measure. The fees being proposed fall into three specific exceptions: 1) the "Benefit or Privilege" exception, where the payer is receiving a specific benefit or privilege from the government; 2) the "Service or Product" Exception, where the fee is a charge for a specific government service or product; and 3) the "Regulatory" Exception, where the fee is imposed to cover reasonable regulatory costs relating to licenses, permits, investigations, inspections, audits, and related enforcement activities.

Finally, in several public meetings, some fee payers questioned the legality of adding to the fees charged to various food establishments the costs associated with the EH Division's regulation of illegal food vending activities. Specifically, the concern was that the addition of these costs constituted an unlawful tax. However, the law permits the assessment of the costs of these enforcement activities to legally operating food establishments. These establishments receive both a specific benefit and a specific government service as a result of the EH Division's enforcement program.

Further, because illegal food vendors operate outside the law, they do not bear the various costs associated with regulating their establishments. However, the existence of illegal food vendors not only creates a danger to the public, but it also introduces a strong element of unfair competition with legal vendors who are required to ensure that their establishments are operating within the guidelines of State and County laws. Legal food vendors do not have the power or the ability to create and maintain their own enforcement program, so the EH Division must step in to provide this service. At the same time, the County's enforcement program benefits the legal restaurant owner by eliminating unfair and illegal competition. Because of these benefits, the law supports the addition of this illegal food vending component to the fees charged to lawfully operating food establishments.

Pursuant to California Government Code, Section 66018, a local agency must hold a public hearing as part of a regularly scheduled meeting of the Board of Supervisors, before adopting an ordinance, resolution, or other legislative enactment adopting a new fee, and shall publish notice of the public hearing in a newspaper in accordance with Government Code Section 6062a.

The Auditor Controller has reviewed and approved the proposed fees as to reasonableness. County Counsel has reviewed and approved the proposed ordinance as to form.

IMPACT ON CURRENT SERVICES (OR PROJECTS)

If adopted, the ordinance will allow DPH to adjust EH fees to reflect the actual cost of the services provided. If the recommended ordinance is not adopted, DPH will face an annual operating deficit in EH beginning in FY 2011-12. Without sufficient funding, EH will be forced to freeze positions and curtail services. This will likely result in a delay or reduction of services in the following areas:

- Inspections of high risk food facilities;
- Enforcement activities against illegal food vendors;
- Complaint investigations and enforcement activities at unlicensed housing sites and other unlicensed facilities;
- Complaint investigations at licensed facilities; and
- Plan check approvals for new or modified food facilities, swimming pools, septic systems, wells, and solid waste processing facilities.

CONCLUSION

Consistent with your Board's instructions, DPH has notified impacted parties and their associations of the new rate restructuring plan, held meetings with associations of regulated entities, considered public and industry comments, and made appropriate modifications to the initial ordinance. The proposed ordinance reflects these modifications and supports the implementation of an activity-based fee structure to recover the actual costs of services provided by DPH EH, including enforcement of California Health and Safety Code requirements. The changes in definitions codify the new rate structure in the recommended ordinance, and will reduce confusion by referring to facilities permitted by the County with the same terms used in State laws and regulations.

ANALYSIS

This ordinance amends Title 8 – Consumer Protection and Business Regulations and Title 20 – Utilities of the Los Angeles County Code relating to fees and fee category definitions for inspections conducted by the Department of Public Health by:

- Increasing and decreasing many of the public health fees found in Title 8 and Title 20 to support the implementation of a workload-based fee structure utilizing a methodology that reflects actual costs of services.
- Adding public health fees to Title 8 and Title 20 to recover costs of services that were previously provided to parties without a fee.
- Adding to and deleting from Title 8 and Title 20 many definitions relating to public health fees to make them consistent with the definitions found in State laws and regulations, and to create new categories of service fees.
- Amending Title 8 to change the method used to determine charitable status to qualify for no-fee licenses and permits.
- Adding to Title 8 a service that allows businesses to request an expedited review of construction permits for an additional fee that recovers actual costs for overtime services.

SECTION 66. Section 8.04.820 is hereby amended to read as follows:

8.04.820 Procedures for issuing public health licenses and permits for temporary activities.

A. Notwithstanding Section 8.04.640, if the applicant for a public health license or permit under this chapter shows to the satisfaction of the Treasurer-Tax Collector that because a business or occupation or other activity is of a seasonal nature, or because of statutory or ordinance regulations or restrictions, ~~or because of termination or loss of lease,~~ or because of acquisition by the public of the premises on which the occupation or business or other activity is situated, or because of similar reasons, such business, occupation or activity can only be carried on for a limited period of time, not more than three-quarters of a year, a license or permit may be issued for such period of time and the license or permit fee shall be the following fraction of the annual fee:

1. One-quarter of a year or less, one-fourth;
2. More than one-quarter but not more than one-half of a year, one-half;
3. More than one-half but not more than three-quarters of a year, three-fourths.

B. Such license or permit may be issued for the limited period without regard to fiscal years.

C. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a swimming pool shall not be considered a seasonal activity.

~~D. Where this section applies to a restaurant having a seating capacity of less than 11 seats, the permit fee shall be computed based upon the fee for 11 to 31 seat capacity.~~

SECTION 67. Section 20.52.020 is hereby amended to read as follows:

20.52.020 Purpose of Division 4 provision – Statutory authority.

The purpose of the ordinance codified in Division 4 of this title is to provide for the enforcement of the Z'berg-Kapiloff Solid Waste Control Act of 1976, Section 66795 et seq. of the Government Code and the regulations promulgated thereunder and under Section 66770 of the Government Code pertaining to the minimum standards for solid-waste handling and disposal, and to create a fee structure for solid-waste facilities, waste collectors, waste recovery operations and waste collection trucks.

SECTION 68. Section 20.56.005 is hereby added to read as follows:

20.56.005 Biosolids processing/composting at publicly operated treatment works.

"Biosolids processing/composting at publicly operated treatment works" means the controlled biological decomposition of solid, semi-solid, or liquid residue generated during the treatment of domestic sewage in a treatment works. "Biosolids," as defined in California Code of Regulations, Title 14, Section 17852(a)(9), includes, but is not limited to, treated domestic septage and scum or solids removed in primary, secondary, or advanced wastewater treatment processes. Biosolids does not include ash generated during the firing of sewage sludge in a sewage sludge incinerator or grit and screenings generated during the preliminary treatment of domestic sewage in a treatment works.

SECTION 69. Section 20.56.011 is hereby added to read as follows:

20.56.011 Chipping and grinding operations.

"Chipping and grinding operations" means an operation which does not produce compost, and which mechanically reduces the size or otherwise engages in the handling of compostable material, as defined in California Code of Regulations, Title 14, Section 17852(a)(10), and which receives up to two hundred (200) tons per day of material that may be handled by a green material composting operation.

SECTION 70. Section 20.56.012 is hereby added to read as follows:

20.56.012 Compostable material handling operations.

"Compostable material handling operations" means an operation which processes, transfers, or stores any compostable material, as defined in California Code of Regulations, Title 14, Section 17852(a)(11), that when accumulated may become active compost, as defined in California Code of Regulations, Title 14, Section 17852(a)(1). Handling of compostable materials results in controlled biological decomposition. Handling includes composting, screening, chipping and grinding, and storage activities related to the production of compost, compost feedstock, and chipped and ground materials. Compostable materials handling operation does not include activities excluded from regulation in California Code of Regulations, Title 14, Section

17855. Compostable materials handling operation also includes the following, as defined in California Code of Regulations, Title 14, Section 17852 (a)(6), (a)(10), (a)(21) and (a)(34):

- A. Agricultural material composting operations;
- B. Chipping and grinding operations and facilities;
- C. Green material composting operations and facilities; and
- D. Research composting operations.

SECTION 71. Section 20.56.013 is hereby added to read as follows:

20.56.013 Construction and demolition wood debris chipping and grinding operations.

"Construction and demolition wood debris chipping and grinding operations" means a site which conducts chipping and grinding activities to produce construction and demolition mulch, as defined in California Code of Regulations, Title 14, Section 17381(f). Authorized chipping and grinding activities do not produce active compost, but mechanically reduce the size of lumber and other wood material to produce construction and demolition mulch.

SECTION 72. Section 20.56.014 is hereby added to read as follows:

20.56.014 Contaminated soil transfer or processing operations.

"Contaminated soil transfer/processing operations" means an operation which handles only contaminated soil, as defined in California Code of Regulations, Title 14, Section 17361 (b)(1)(2), for purposes of treatment, storage, or transfer.

SECTION 73. Section 20.56.031 is hereby added to read as follows:

20.56.031 Green material composting operations.

"Green material composting operations" means an operation which composts green material, additives, and/or amendments. A green material composting operation may also handle manure and paper products. An operation which handles a feedstock that is not green material, manure, or paper products, shall not be considered a green material composting operation. A green material composting operation may have up to twelve thousand five hundred (12,500) cubic yards of feedstock, compost, or chipped and ground material on site at any one time.

SECTION 74. Section 20.56.033 is hereby added to read as follows:

20.56.033 Intermodal cargo processing.

"Intermodal cargo processing" means an activity which processes, transfers, or stores municipal solid waste into intermodal cargo containers for transportation by rail to a sanitary landfill.

SECTION 75. Section 20.56.034 is hereby added to read as follows:

20.56.034 Inert debris engineered fill operations.

"Inert debris engineered fill operations" means a disposal activity exceeding one (1) year in duration in which fully cured asphalt, uncontaminated concrete (including steel reinforcing rods embedded in the concrete), brick, ceramics, clay and clay products, which may be mixed with rock and soil, are spread on land in lifts and compacted under controlled conditions to achieve a uniform and dense mass which is capable of supporting structural loading as necessary, and having other characteristics appropriate for an end use approved by all governmental agencies having jurisdiction, such as roads, building sites, or other improvements, where an engineered fill is required to facilitate productive use of the land.

SECTION 76. Section 20.56.036 is hereby added to read as follows:

20.56.036 Inert debris type A processing operations.

"Inert debris type A processing operations" means a site which receives less than one thousand five hundred (1,500) tons per operating day of only type A inert debris for storage, handling, transfer, or processing, as defined in California Code of Regulations, Title 14, Section 17381(o).

SECTION 77. Section 20.56.037 is hereby added to read as follows:

20.56.037 Limited volume transfer operations.

"Limited volume transfer operations" means an operation which receives less than sixty (60) cubic-yards, or fifteen (15) tons of solid waste per operating day for the purpose of storing the waste prior to transferring the waste to another solid waste operation, as defined in California Code of Regulations, Title 14, Section 17402(9).

SECTION 78. Section 20.56.053 is hereby added to read as follows:

20.56.053 Research composting operations.

"Research composting operations" means a composting operation that is operated for the purpose of gathering research information on composting. An operator conducting research composting operations shall not have more than five thousand (5,000) cubic-yards of feedstock, additives, amendments, chipped and ground material, and compost on-site at any one time, as defined in California Code of Regulations, Title 14, Section 17862.

SECTION 79. Section 20.56.054 is hereby added to read as follows:

20.56.054 Sealed container transfer operations.

"Sealed container transfer operations" means a transfer operation which meets the following requirements, as defined in California Code of Regulations, Title 14, Section 17402(26).

- A. Handles only solid waste which has previously been placed within containers that have either a latched, hard top or other impermeable cover which is closed tightly enough to:
 - 1. Prevent liquid from infiltrating into or leaking out of the container;
 - and
 - 2. Prevent the propagation and migration of vectors.
- B. The solid waste remains within the unopened containers at all times while on-site; and,
- C. The containers are not stored on-site for more than ninety-six (96) hours.

SECTION 80. Section 20.56.057 is hereby added to read as follows:

20.56.057 Small volume construction and demolition/inert (CDI) debris processing operations.

"Small volume construction and demolition/inert (CDI) debris processing operations" means a site which receives less than twenty-five (25) tons of any combination of construction and demolition debris as defined in California Code of Regulations, Title 14, Section 17381(cc) and type A inert debris as defined in California Code of Regulations, Title 14, Section 17388(1) per operating day for the purposes of storage, handling, transfer, or processing construction and demolition debris.

SECTION 81. Section 20.56.058 is hereby added to read as follows:

20.56.058 Small volume construction and demolition wood debris chipping and grinding operations.

"Small volume construction and demolition wood debris chipping and grinding operations" means a site which receives less than two hundred (200) tons per operating day of construction and demolition mulch feedstock for purposes of processing it into construction and demolition mulch, as defined in California Code of Regulations, Title 14, Section 17381(bb).

SECTION 82. Section 20.56.081 is hereby deleted in its entirety:

~~20.56.081 Small volume transfer station.~~

~~"Small volume transfer station" means any transfer/processing station which receives less than 100 cubic yards or less than 30 tons of solid wastes on a daily basis.~~

SECTION 83. Section 20.64.110 is hereby amended to read as follows:

20.64.110 Schedule of solid waste Ppermit and Rregulatory fees.

Every solid waste facility operator, waste collector, self-hauler, or ~~small volume transfer station operator~~ facility salvaging solid waste for recycling reuse or resale must pay the following fees to the enforcement agency:
